REPORT FOR BEESTON EQUINE SALE
WEDNESDAY 9th September 2009

A fairly quiet day from recent sales through out the summer holidays, but a decent clearance was made for the 80+ Horses, Ponies & Donkeys that had been entered. Many vendors are now realising that the trade is somewhat on a different level than last year and many either putting realistic or even no reserve price on their entries to sell rather than having the expense of them returning home to eat even more and gain any further costs related to all types of equine. Plenty of buyers are keen to make a purchase but at a lower price than recent times.
